Guests of Byron Retreat will quickly find themselves falling under its magical spell. A glorious entrance gallery echoes to the sound of falling water and connects the living and sleeping curved pavilions. Lush tropical gardens envelop a pool for whiling away hot afternoons. The effect is just so fabulously interesting with creative use of wrought iron, Spanish mission themes and dabs of Morocco. For those seeking a romantic, exciting and thoroughly engaging experience this is an ideal choice.

Children (and their parents) will also love the intriguing fantasy house that is Byron Retreat – and not just because it has a cubby house, a sand pit, heaps of kids, videos and a toy box to unpack. The real attraction is the very quirky – and, may we say, very Byron – interplay of elegant design with funky art features like the stone sculptures, Pacific Island carvings and Indian chests.

The captivating charm of this truly special retreat, combined with its secluded location moments from Byron and its beaches, will surely inspire a carefree spirit.
